About the role:

Chosen Care Group is currently recruiting Care Worker with a minimum of six months experience in delivering Personal Care, and housekeeping tasks.

You need level 1 in Health and Social Care or equivalent, effective communication skills, and prepared to work flexibly to meet our Patients needs in the community.

We are passionate about making people's lives better, and we treat our patient and communities as our families since we value their concerns.

Main duties -

- Assist patient's with personal care tasks, such as washing, dressing, eating and toileting.
- Perform light housekeeping tasks, such as dusting, vacuuming, and changing bed clothes.
- Assist in the safe lifting, transferring, repositioning and movement of patients.
- Support all aspects of medication and accompany patient's to medical appointments.
- Observe, monitor, and record patient's physical and emotional well-being and promptly report any changes to senior staff.
- Encourage patient's to participate in social and recreational activities while helping them maintain independence.

Care Worker - Job Descriptions

- Ensure effective demonstration and reporting is carried out for every patient you provide care and able to work under minimal supervision.

Who we are

Chosen Care Group is one of the UK's leading care providers of support for people with complex needs, learning disabilities, autism, and mental health, renowned for its technology-driven approach.

At Chosen Care Group, we foster a culture of compassion and dedication and pridefully create meaningful experiences for all we care for. As a Carer with us, you learn, develop your skills, and make a meaningful difference in your patient's lives. We are always mindful that one day we may need care ourselves, and today we strive to create a company we can trust to provide us with the care we require when the time comes.

If this post excites you, and you are looking to improve your quality of life and create a better everyday life for our patient, as part of this role, please email your cv to hr@chosencaregroup.com
